FEBRUARY 2021

What have we learned from 2020?

Two of the biggest lessons learned from all this was how to slow down and how important family and friends really are. Families that saw each other just in passing were now sitting down to a family dinner, a game night or a movie night. Those overwhelming wall calendars were now empty and people were really getting to know each other again. We were all slowing down and realizing what was really important in life.

What better way to celebrate February, the month of love, than to make a vow to take time out for those we love and hold dear, from here on out. Don't allow the passing of this pandemic (if it should ever really pass) to go back to our chaotic way of living. Keep on making time for those family dinners & family game nights, for it is those memories that will remain with us always.

Wishing everyone a safe and Happy Valentine's Day from all of us here at Hopmeier, Evans, Gage Agency
